Library Cards:

Library patrons must present their own library cards when checking out or renewing material.

Borrowers are responsible for materials borrowed with their cards. Please report loss of library card immediately to prevent unauthorized use.

Massachusetts residents who present a piece of acceptable ID may apply for a free library card. The ID must have the applicant's name and current address. Acceptable IDs include: MA Driver's License/Learner's Permit, MA State ID, current school year report card/schedule, Check Book, Telephone Bill, Gas Bill, Electric Bill, Bank Statement or other acceptable ID. Chelsea Public Library cards entitle borrowers to take out materials from libraries in Boston, Chelsea and Malden (the Metro Boston Library Network).

A lost library card may be replaced upon presentation of a valid ID and replacement fee of $2.00 per adult card, young adult card and children's card.

Materials not currently available in Chelsea may be requested from other MBLN libraries and other network libraries.
